

General Rosa will be the candidate for the Presidency. There is a conviction rampant that the market is on the eve of another startling political evolution.

The stagnation in the wool market continues, and there are no prospects of activity until the gold premium rises heavily or prices in Europe improve materially. Arrivals of wool from the rural districts are small.

Exchange brokers report a very difficult market—all kinds of rates current at present; but on the whole, they have backed out and rates are firmer.

The Houston Herald has arrived in the river; she brings a large cargo for this port.

There was a demand in the market this afternoon that sensational advice had been received from London. There was no truth in the report.

Private advices report a very critical state of affairs in the Mount. It appears that the President must now govern with the military, and great distrust prevails.

The gold market ruled exceedingly firm at the second ring, confirming the trading of the bull that the bank have run short of very large amounts of gold. Twelve thousand ounces were sold for $100.00, the price opened at $100.40.

With a dropping tendency, but heavy buyers came forward and the market advanced immediately, closing hard at $100.50, say $100.50, premium. One thousand and six hundred ounces were sold, the price opened at $100.50, premium.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares today at the second ring:
